

Tibetan Centre for Human Rights and Democracy

བོད་ཀྱི་འགྲོ་བ་མིའི་ཐོབ་ཐང་དང་མང་གཙོ་འཕེལ་རྒྱས་ལྗོངས་གནས་ཁང་།

Press

18 March 2008 [Photo Release]

Photographic evidence of the bloody crackdown on peaceful protesting Tibetan at Ngaba County, Sichuan Province, on 16 March 2008

WARNING: EXTREMELY DISTURBING PICTURES.

Viewer discretion is advised.

Pictures of extremely disturbing dead bodies with internal body part exposed.

For higher resolution pictures contact Mr. Tashi Phuntsok, Information Officer at: 9418055622

Eye witnesses say 15 dead bodies have been brought into Ngaba Kirti Monastery for prayer offerings after the bloody crackdown on 16 March 2008. The actual number of dead can be higher.

Click below for the related news:

Fresh Pictures of Tibetan protesters' dead bodies and crackdown by the Chinese security forces.

Eight dead bodies brought into Ngaba Kirti Monastery

At least seven shot dead in demonstration in Ngaba County

News Just in: Fresh protest by Amdo Ngaba Kirti monks

16. Aindo Ngapa Asag Ma Village, Hunlor, families' Ceptan, 14/03/08, age 64yrs, hit
Wife is injured very seriously by shooting, age 54yrs, ten family members.

15. Audo Ngapa Asag Ma Village's owner of Honkor family's Gepan Thalho, age 64yrs, his Wife is injured very seriously by shooting, age 54yrs, ten family members.

www.tchrd.org/press/2008/pr20080318c.html

